students, staff show varied interests

RESTLESS students await for the Homecoming parade to begin. The parade was a success and the Future Farmers of America once again placed first in the float competition against other clubs and classes. This is their second consecutive year at the top.

TOP FIVE candidate Jeannie Ghiggeri and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Angela Ghiggeri anxiously wait for the parade to commence.

MAXINE DANNOLLY and Gary Andrade share intimate moments as they participate on our Homecoming "Clash Day". The seniors came in first in this event which gave them additive points to capture the Spirit Trophy given to the most spirited class.

JANET SMITH and Ann Bloomfield sit proudly on a black convertible as their driver, Dwayne Minick, prepares the car for the annual Homecoming Parade that starts at the park.

SPIRIT is also exhibited during the morning of the special day as students decorate cars to attract attention at the "horn honking" car rally.

VICTIM of ridicule, Tony Olan, competes against himself trying to devour the most cupcakes he could possibly handle in our first football rally.

many smiling faces display student involvement

VILLAGERS of the Tobiki Village gather to watch a wrestling match between Leo Martin and Ben Tutor as Jack Marlow begins to start this event with the closure of his fan in "Tea House of the August Moon."

CAMPUS LIFE is full of greenery, relaxation and fulfillment as the students sit and chat or clean the area.

IS THIS the latest fashion? Heavens no! These girls, Jobina Urinda and Valerie Gage are dressed for the "Bottom Ten" skit at a rally.

YOU, BIT OFF more than you can chew!" cries Danny Navarette as he participates in a hilarious skit dressed as a typical cheerleader.

BEAUTIFUL Lotus Blossom, Juliette Betten-court, performs a delicate Japanese dance, dressed in a colorful kimono and thongs as she waves her lovely fan.

CLASS OF 1978 is faithful and true as these freshmen salute to "Hail Liberty" at the end of an afternoon rally in the gym. They are a very spirited class.

classes, posters, sports spirit build diverse campus

PHYSIOLOGY offers students greater advantages as fetal dissection allows Mark Conway to examine and locate muscles.

LIBERTY campus is full of colorful posters on "Poster Day" as students exhibit artistic talents and spirit.

Lined up and ready for their cue to march down Ohmstede field the graduating seniors were prepared on June 6, 1975 to perform their final task together as a class. Making last minute checks to see that their cardinal and gold caps and gowns were in place the seniors reminisced about their four year venture through high school. "Remember when . . ." spread through the crowd and suddenly it was Yesterday Once More.

Remembering their freshman year the seniors realized they were experiencing as graduates the same mixed feelings they had felt upon entering high school. The jump from their eighth grade to freshman year had seemed scary and exciting, but now upon graduation college, occupations, and marriage were in the near future of many of the class of 1975.

As new as the whole concept of high school had seemed to the class they accomplished much in the way of learning, experiencing, and enjoying. Jumping right into the middle of things the class, led by Joe Munoz, president; Eddie Garcia, vice president; Rosemarie Sanchez, treasurer; Susan Chan, secretary; and Angel Cueva, representative, started out the year raising money by holding a dance. Mr. Herb Scott and Miss Kaye Axelgard, class advisers, gave the freshmen pointers as they enthusiastically worked together to make the most of their first Homecoming. They placed first in the competition yelling, third in the penny raising contest and produced their first float, themed "Scalp Em".

1972 would be a hard year for the class of 75 to forget as it stood for all the newness and changes high school had in store for them.

Memories of their sophomore year proved equally as unforgettable. One year older and more experienced with the techniques of high school life, class officers Eddie Garcia, president; Joe Munoz, vice president; Tanya Tutor, secretary; Susan Chan, treasurer; and Paula Graves, representative took over the responsibility of leading the class. Helping them earn money, compete with the other classes at Homecoming, and organize their first semi-formal dance, advisers Mr. Herb Scott and Miss Nancy Doi guided the budding sophomores through another successful year.

Combining all their ideas, talents, and manpower the class turned out their second float and numerous, well-organized posters which enabled the sophomores to win first place in the poster contest. Bringing their record up to two wins in a row the class out yelled all the other classes at the homecoming rally.

Five girls and five boys of the sophomore class, picked by their classmates, felt the excitement of competition as they vied for the titles of Sophomore Hop King and Queen. On May 19, 1973 the sophomores gathered with their dates to dance, converse and enjoy the music. The highlight of the evening arrived when Jorge Moreno and Lindsey Nunn were announced King and Queen. Janet Smith, Lisa Mori, Roxanne Sciortino were princess runner-ups while prince runner-ups were: Chris Gaylor, Eddie Garcia, Frank Unpingco and Joe Page. The sophomores picked the theme "Slippin into Darkness" for their hop.

Fond remembrances of high school would not be complete for the class of 75 without a colorful picture of their junior year.

With two years of experience behind them the class of 75 set out to really accomplish something during their third homecoming. Constructing their best float yet the juniors took third place with the theme "Shoot 2 Victory". Excitement mounted as the juniors waited at the homecoming rally for the results of the competition yelling. For the third consecutive year the class of 75 took first place.

Romantic thoughts began to creep into the minds of the class as they prepared for their Junior Prom. "Pieces of April" was the appropriate theme as the Prom was held on April 6, 1974. The juniors and their dates enjoyed the sounds of "Madness" on this special night.

Another successful year had come and gone with Tony Ball, president; Paula Graves vice president; Roxanne Sciortino, secretary; Janet Smith, treasurer; and Stella Rios, representative to thank for organizing the day by day events of the class.

Memories just as the real thing go by fast and suddenly its the 1974-1975 school year again. For the seniors

CLASSES

It was a year of excitement, anticipation, soul-searching and challenge.

Children Jan Bulcken, president; Paula Graves, vice president; Nancy Payne, secretary and Tim Abney, treasurer. A challenging year of making plans, setting dates, and informing the class of coming events.

Raising money for the many senior activities the class put on dances, car washes, and a huge candy sale.

The first event on the calendar was Homecoming, a repeated yet never boring day for the students. The seniors really got it together and placed first in the parade contest, penny drive, and dress-up day. Making their float and float victory in the competition yelling the seniors once again out-yelled the competing classes. The screaming heard in the yelling contest was nothing, however, compared to the roar of the senior class when Eddie Garcia walked up to accept the Scroll trophy for the class.

The Senior Ball will long be remembered as a success. The couples traveled to Berkeley to H's Lordships on May 17, 1975. Ivory Tower provided the music as the seniors danced and ate their dinner. Filet Mignon was served as the main course. The theme "We May Never Pass This Way Again" will long be remembered by the seniors.

For the second time the seniors of Liberty were able to experience the excitement of Grad Nite at Disneyland. On May 30, 1975 the class set off in frantic search of fun and excitement.

May 23, 1975 meant a day off for the seniors as they set off to spend the day picnicing at Oak Park in Stockton. Ice skating, tennis, swimming, baseball and eating filled the days events.

Would it be possible to forget when Mr. Sharafanowich and the library full of students were killed in the imaginary disaster. Remember how we never knew what would come over the loudspeaker during second period daily announcements?

Adding to Liberty's Curriculum, Mr. Oliver Hascom organized and taught the school's first advanced placement class in English.

Preparing for their senior year and the various experiences awaiting them, the ambitious Class of 76 held car washes, cake sales and sold light bulbs and candy.

With the theme "Fly to Victory", the Juniors float placed second in the Homecoming parade.

April 5, 1975, proved to be a memorable night for the Juniors who attended the Junior Prom. The class chose "Memories" for their theme, with music by "Get Ready".

Assistance was given to the Class of 76, with officers Sandy Pittman, president; Terri Tipton, vice president; Jennifer Beaver, secretary, and Becky Ribiero, treasurer; by class advisors, Miss Rita Pirtle and Mr. Jerry Black.

Washing cars and selling cakes and candies were some ways the Sophomore class earned money to sponsor the Sophomore Hop which was held on May 10. With the theme "Starway to Heaven", the Class of 77 danced to the sounds of "J.J. Moon".

The competitive sophomores captured third place in the float competition during the Homecoming float contest.

Competing in the various events of Spring Fever Week, the sophomores proved their spirit and enthusiasm, as they tied for first place with the seniors.

Thanks should be given to Kati Stornetta, president; Debby Upshaw, secretary; David Snow, treasurer; and class advisors Mrs. Pat Claywell and Mr. Gary Wilson for helping to make this a year to remember.

Led by Tony Olan, president; Stan Nunn, vice president; Mike Gonzalez, secretary; Christina Bacchini, treasurer; and class advisors Mrs. Bomben and Mr. Child, the Class of 77 showed strong will by participating in every event with spirit.

Holding bake sales and car washes, the freshmen were successful in their money-raising activities.

Thoughts of yesterday fade as the seniors realize they will soon no longer be a part of Liberty, but are heading for tomorrow.

seniors win competition yell at homecoming rally

EXCITEMENT builds as the seniors yell their way to victory at the 1975 Homecoming rally. Following a tradition they set themselves, the class of 1975 went on to win the Homecoming competition yell for the fourth time. A combination of first, second, and third places in the various Homecoming activities gave the seniors a winning number of points.

class of '76 wish football teams good luck

AFTER all the Homecoming activities were done, it was time to come inside and scream your lungs out in the rally. The juniors try very hard to follow the rule by yelling in the competition yell. The posters also add points to help the junior class in the rally. The Homecoming Rally seems to be the most spirited one as the juniors try to say.

This year the Liberty Lions changed league alignment saying good bye to the East Bay Athletic League and hello to the Foothill Athletic League. The change to the new league was made to insure better competition and participation. The new league consists of schools of smaller size than did the old.

In varsity football, headed by Coach Jack Ferrill and assisted by Jerry Lilley and Ron Enos, the Lions found the new league to be as tough as the old one. With but one practice game under their belt, the varsity team compiled an overall 2-8 season record and a 2-7 league record. Coming off a tough loss to Franklin, the Lions worked hard before they were able to garner a victory against Pacifica and then later Albany.

After dropping their first six games the junior varsity football team came back strong to finish the season with a 2-7-1 record. The baby Lions enjoyed the best record of all the football teams as they won over half of their games and earned a 4-3-1 season record; with all games played in league competition.

During the hot days of September and October the cross-country team trudged over hill and dale through grass, mud, heat, rain, and wind only to have blisters on their sore tender feet. Most of the powers of the F.A.L. had strong teams and some courses were boring and some were rewarding. When it finally ended at St. Mary's College on November, the boys were proud to be a part of another successful cross-country season at Liberty. Over the season Jose Cruz was awarded the Most Valuable and Ernie Garcia was elected team captain.

Liberty Union High School can be very proud of this years basketball team which posted an overall season record of 10 wins and 15 losses. Even though the won-loss record was not one of Liberty's best the caliber of play was top-flight. Liberty challenged almost every opponent they played down to the final quarter of play and this made for exciting basketball.

Outstanding individual performers for this season were All-League players Jorge Moreno and Rick Melgoza. Jorge led the Foothill Athletic League in scoring with a 19 point average while Rick was certainly the best floor leader in the league. Junior Rick Hoxard did a fine job rebounding and should be a big asset to next years team.

The 1974-75 junior varsity basketball team had a record of eight wins and fourteen losses. But, this record did not indicate the desire and hustle this team showed on the court. Many players who saw little or not action during their freshman year were called upon as starters, and did a fine job.

This years captain was guard, Ray Rentuma, who ran the offense. Most valuable player was forward, Alvin Sarmiento, who led the teams in rebounding and scoring.

This year freshmen basketball team established a fine record of 13 wins and 5 losses. But, the most important aspect of this years team was that they won 9 out of their last 10 games. This years freshmen were led by Co-M.V.P.'s Robert Maiocco, Barry Schwitters and Captain, Joey Moreno. Although only a few names are mentioned, the success of this years team can only be attributed to the hard work and spirit of the whole team.

This wrestling season was not determined a success when wins and losses are considered. Liberty, suffered with a lack of wrestlers to fill the heavier weight classes and we only won one dual match.

We did however, have several individuals that did excellent throughout the season and then earned medals at the championship tournaments.

The team had only two seniors and the rest were under-graduates, consequently we will have to go to the old adage "wait til next year."

Soccer saw a new style in the new league. The teams were bigger and tougher but Liberty seemed to have a better second half by holding six teams to zero goals in six consecutive games.

The team captain was Jose Jimenez and most valuable player was Miguel Pulido. Miguel was also on the F.A.L. All-tourney team. Five other players were also all F.A.L. selections.

Consistency and experience were the key elements missing as the Lion Varsity baseball team entered the F.A.L. for the first time.

With only a nucleus of three returning lettermen the Lions had to rely upon younger players from the Junior Varsity who lacked the experience and cohesiveness that are necessary ingredients in becoming a league contender.

With a returning nucleus of key personnel and the addition of several J.V. standouts, the future looks promising for Lion baseball.

In breaking the tradition, a most valuable player was not chosen and in its place Mark Conway, Don Navarrette, and John Vaswer were chosen as captains by a vote of their teammates.

The 1975 Junior Varsity Baseball team completed a successful season by compiling an 8-9 F.A.L. record and 9-12 season slate. The players proved their desire to complete and improve by practicing hard and playing as a team unit, resulting in six consecutive wins at the conclusion of the season throughout the season, they were always a contender in every game as the season score chart indicates.

Leading the team in batting were Roger Graves with a .407 batting average and Philip Carvajal with a .362 batting average, he was also chosen Co-M.V.P. for the season. At the conclusion of its season versatile Ron Pato was selected as the team captain.

This years Frosh Baseball season was a very satisfying one with help from Greg Morse, Manuel and Diego Torres, Mike Gonzales and Barry Schwitters. They were able to place 2nd in the league.

The players worked and played as a team, and with much depth from the bench. They were able to come out on top most of the time.

Barry Schwitters received the honor of most valuable player for his outstanding efforts on the mound. His batting was .344 batting average.

The season ended with a record of 11 wins, 4 losses and a league record of 8 wins and 4 losses.

The Liberty golfers hacked their way to the winningest season ever and the best team record at Liberty during the 74-75 year. The F.A.L. presented some new and challenging courses, but as always one players course is another's sand trap. The four all day tournaments made it a very rewarding season and for the third consecutive year Rick Howard was awarded the most valuable "golfer."

The Liberty track season was an exciting year in varsity competition. The varsity won their first dual meet in 5 years. The team as a whole was lead by super-freshmen. Robert Maiocco was undefeated in quarter-mile races, Homer Briseno set frosh-soph school record in the long jump. The JV track team excited the whole school by winning the league meet.

This year the G.A.A. volleyball teams competed in the Girls Foothill Athletic League. The competed against Acalanes, Berkeley, Compolino, Del Valle, Los Lomas, Miramonte and Piedmont in league competition, Antioch and California in practice games. The season ran from Sept. 1 through Nov. 12 with the varsity ending up in a three way tie for third place and the junior varsity ending up in sixth place.

This year was the second year for the gymnastics team. As a young team they gained alot of experience, competing in the strong GFAL. The most outstanding gymnast was Rosemary Sanchez. She qualified to go on to Northern California Compulsories and then to the optionals. She placed 12th on the bars against one hundred competitors. The most improved was freshmen Susie Vasta.

This boys tennis team was ambushed in the Western Foothills. The young tennis team began the season with an eastward romp over Franklin. Seeking new horizons and greater challenges the team headed west. Meeting only with token resistance from the reigning F.A.L. powers they whipped us. They regrouped, beat the socks off Albany and Pacifica. Steve Wong was named captain of the team, while Max Shott was named Most Valuable Player.

In tennis the girls were experienced in playing competitively. The coach for the team was Mr. William Snow. This was the second year that Mr. Snow was the girl's coach.

Liberty's girls softball team successfully completed their first season of F.A.L. competition. Finishing in third place after a thrilling play off with Acalanes. They also participated in the Acalanes Invitational Softball Tournament for the first time.

Senior Tina Delgado was elected team captain, other seniors were Val Gage, Terisa Olveda and Darlene Stewart. "Our team this year was the best I've ever coached", said coach Kaye Axelgard.

For the second consecutive year. A girl is awarded and award for her outstanding dedication to girls sports. To earn this award you have to have the athletic ability and sportmanship, along with participation in numerous other sports. These are the keys to this honor. Receiving this award was senior Rosemary Sanchez.

In keeping with tradition, the school year 1974-75 began with the annual Barn Dance sponsored by the Future Farmer's of America. Students attending the dance left with hay in their hair from the hay toss. Darlene Stewart was crowned FFA Sweetheart by the club president, Joe De Borba. Runners-up Patti Williams, Kelli Dean, Pam Orman and Sherri Myers received necklaces.

If school spirit was at a low ebb for part of this year, it certainly caught up with itself during Homecoming Week, October 14-18. Class Floats were assembled on Minnesota Avenue outside of Brentwood, and class members worked long hard hours only to be defeated again this year by the FFA with the theme "Grind the Trojans". The Class of '75 won the Spirit Trophy, scoring the highest total of points during Homecoming Week contests. Commissioner of Athletics, Danny Navarette, and Commissioner of Rallies, Lindsey Nunn, worked together to plan a successful Homecoming Week.

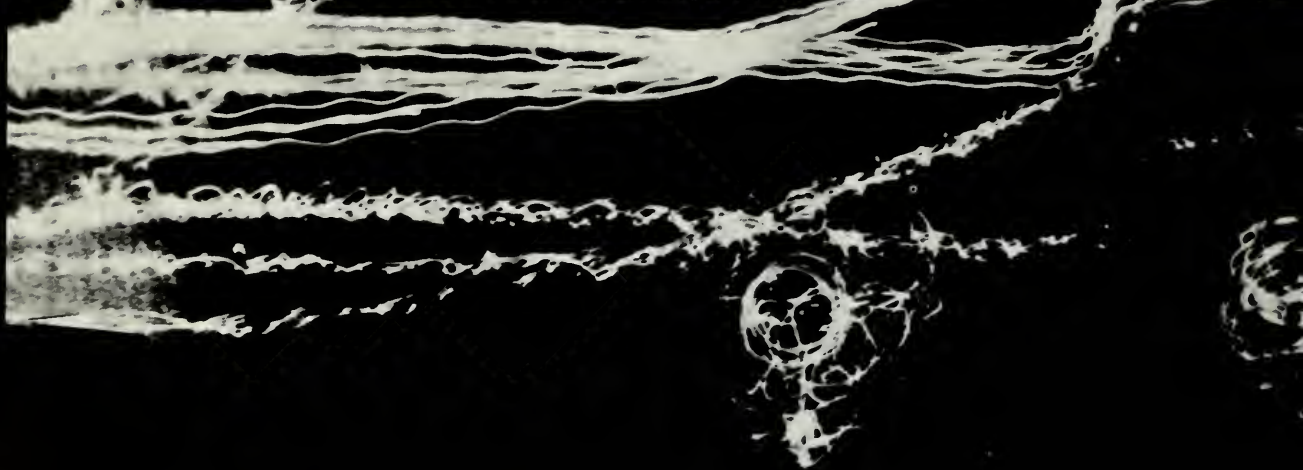

Tension rose all week as class members voted for Homecoming Queen Top Ten: Jackie Byers, Janet Smith, Paula Graves, Jeanie Ghiggeri, Lindsey Nunn, Lori Celoni, Patti Hughes, Roxanne Sciortino, Ann Bloomfield and Rosemary Sanchez. Then seniors and the varsity football team voted for top five: Lori Celoni, Jeanie Ghiggeri, Lindsey Nunn, Paula Graves and Roxanne Sciortino. Everyone wondered who would become the new Queen. Then the Student Body made their decision and last year's Queen, Laura Serna, crowned Paula Graves as 1974 - 75 Homecoming Queen. After the Homecoming game, the Senior Class sponsored the Homecoming Dance.

LUHS students got a chance to sample foods from different countries as the AFS sponsored the annual International Christmas. Foreign exchange students Naomi Iwakura, Tulin Evliya, Rosanna Montanheiro and Alex Steffens had a chance to meet many students whom they might not share classes with.

On May 9, the CSF held their annual carnival in Stonebarger Gym. A good time was had by all, playing games and winning prizes; as balloon, carnies, clowns roamed the gym. The Boy's Block L sponsored the Rayders Plus game against the Liberty Coaching Club plus. The Rayders Plus won the basketball game. The FFA also sponsored the Donkey Basketball Game this year featuring the Boy's Block L, the FFA, and the Faculty.

Again this year the sophomore and junior classes had their special night to remember. The junior class picking the date April 5, 1975 chose the theme "Memories" and danced to the music of "Get Ready". The Junior Prom was held in the LUHS cafeteria.

The sophomore class dancing to the music of "JJ Moon" had their annual Sophomore Hop on May 10, 1975. They chose the theme "Stairway to Heaven" to remember this night. This was the time they announced their new King, Bob Reed, and Queen, Stacye Smith. Runner-up Princesses were Joyce McLean, Merri Bustow, Laura Nunn and Peggy Dominguez. Runner-up Princes were Brian Lyons, Roger Graves, Mike Porter, Jose Dominguez.

ACTIVITIES

The seniors chose "His Lordships" as the setting for their royal senior ball. They enjoyed the music from the band "Ivory Tower". The menu for the night was Filet Mignon, salad, rolls, vegetables, potatoes, and desert. All of these nights will mark a time to remember for all the students and faculty who participated.

The annual Applied Art show held on May 20 and 21, 1975 gave the students, faculty, and public a chance to enjoy all the wood and art objects hand-made by the LUHS students. This added a shine to the gym.

The new Performing Arts department put on three plays under the directions of Mr. Allen Jones, Mr. Steven Brunsvold, and Mr. Phillip Devine. In November, they produced "Teahouse of the August Moon" starring Jack Marlowe, Juliette Bettercourt, David Snow, and John Gomes.

May 3, 4, and 5 brought "Mame" to Liberty Union High School with Kim Abney, Rhonda Martin, Merri Bristow, Paul Soderstrom, and David Snow who along with a superb cast set the town in a whirl. The tunes "Open a New Window" and "It's Today" were heard echoing down halls and whispering through the library while the Playmakers cleaned up; selling every seat in the cafeteria all three nights.

For their third performance of the year, the Playmakers presented seven plays which were written and directed by Liberty Union High School students. Although this play was only presented one night in May, Playmakers sold three-fourths of their available seats.

The seniors were able to enjoy for the second time a trip to Disneyland. Leaving on May 30, and returning on the next day, the seniors got to enjoy the entertainment of many performing groups and attractions. Our senior class had their annual picnic at Oak Park on May 25, 1975. Many games and activities were provided.

The school year 1974-75 saw many awards and honors given out to deserving students. May 7 was the date of the Honor's Desert sponsored by the CSF. The top ten students in the Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Classes were honored along with the top scholars. Following, the FFA held their Parent Member banquet. They honored the deserving members and helpers with pins and plaques. The meal of BBQ chicken and steak was enjoyed by many. The highlight was the announcement of the officers for the new coming year.

As the year comes to a close the big assembly of the year came on May 26, 1975. Many people came to Liberty's Stonebarger Gym to watch the seniors receive scholarships and awards. These were given by members of our faculty, guests, clubs of school and community, Oakley, Bethel Island, Byron, Knightsen, and Brentwood.

The school year ended with the Graduation of Seniors on Ohmstede Field. Devon Brooks and Juliette Bettercourt were Co-Valedictorian and Salutictorian, respectively. While Bob Mooney was named student speaker. Seniors took their last steps as the Class of '75 to the sound of Pomp and Circumstance, with hopes for their individual future and memories of Yesterday Once More.

JOHN GOMES plays the role of Colonel Purdy Wainwright III who does his work mostly behind a desk.

DAVID SNOW introduces the audience to the setting of the story to keep them up to date.

LADY ASTOR, a goat starring in Teahouse of the August Moon, willingly drinks some home-made booze called Batata. The crowd gathers around anxiously waiting to see the after effects but there were none other than a baa.

playmakers present teahouse of the august moon

TOWN members gather for a public meeting for an orientation from their new instructor Jack Marlowe. He enjoys it since he is receiving peculiar gifts.

ORIENTAL scenery and costumes add their touch to the play like a teahouse does to a town. In this case, the teahouse took the place of a schoolhouse.

TURNING to Sakini for an explanation of a puzzling gift, Captain Fisby receives a gift from an old villager played by Carlos Sanabria.

EXPLAINING the customs and traditions of his people, Sakini the interpreter tries to make Captain Fisby understand his people's ways.

DISBELIEF is on Captain Fisby's face as Captain McLean, played by Paul Soderstrom, shows the size of worm-castings in their Japanese village. Isn't it hard to believe?

kim abney stars in playmakers; production of 'mame'

KIM ABNEY, Mame, and Rhonda Martin, Vera, sing "It's Today" at a party in Mame's apartment.

RHONDA MARTIN, Vera, in the Shubert Theatre-New Haven scene sings "The Moon Song".

MERRI BRISTOW, Agnes Gooch, joins in with Christmas spirit in "We Need A Little Christmas".

JACK MARLOW and Jan Martin participate in the scene "all around New York", where the different lives of the people were shown to young Patrick by Mame.

KIM ABNEY, Mame, tries to make a good impression on Ben Tuter, Beauregard Jackson Pickett Burnside, to win over Terri Vawser, Sally Cato.

CHORUS members party in "It's Today." Participants are Darla Giannini, Margie Kidwell, Mr. John Armenta, Jan Martin and Debra Brunsvold.

DARLA GIANNINI is a victim of Director Phillip Devine's make-up job. Mame, Mr. Devine's first musical of the year, turned out to be a success all three nights.

DONNA VASQUEZ, Tony Pate, Loraine Pardee, Pat Hawkins, Brian Lyons and Kim Abney take young Patrick played by Max Wyman through the set in "Open a New Window." Kim Abney has the title role of Mame.

BRIAN LYONS, starring in the Fox Hunt scene as Uncle Jeff, chats with Cousin Fan played by Julie Conway. Brian, a man of many talents, also plays the roles of a Bishop and of Junior Babcock.

KIM ABNEY, Rhonda Martin, and Robert Wilcox bow after the "Moon Song" scene as the curtain opens.

'his lordship' hosts senior ball

Ball was held at His Lordships on May 17 with the theme of "We may never pass this way again."

"Tanya's Senior Ball will be a night she will always treasure as one of her happy moments at Liberty."

DEBBIE DAVIS and her escort pose for their picture as they step outside for a breath of fresh air and a cold drink.

KEN DOW with his date Mary Cozakas and Tim Kent with Tweety Billingsley, along with a number of other couples, dance to the soft, slow music at the annual Junior Prom.

HELPING Ken Rogers fix his tie is Tina Ferraro; but she decides that pinching his neck would improve his appearance at the Junior Prom.

ANITA ZACHERY and her date take a few minutes between dances to just sit and chat at the Junior Prom held in the cafeteria area.

sophomores celebrate hop with 'stairway to heaven'

NANETTE MENDOZA gets down to the funky and hard rock sounds of J.J. Moon. The Hop started at 8 and ended at 12.

PATTY AMBROSINO shyly lets out a giggle as Craig Wetzel slips his arm around her. Many couples first went out to have a nice dinner before they arrived at the Sophomore Hop.

RELAXING on the couch are Deanna Harris and George DeLa Rosa as they nervously wait for another song to begin. They were both dressed semi-formal for the once-a-year occasion.

J.J. MOON, a five man band, provides the music for the Sophomore Hop held on May 10. The band plays everything from hard rock to country music, and once in a while, a slow song.

csf members host fun-filled carnival

DAVID SNOW skillfully tosses a hoop as Mr. Lou Bronzan and Chuck Shahan watch with delight as they await their turn to give their skill a try.

NANCY DEMARTINI, working at the tic-tac-toe booth, keeps an eye on the board as a contestant tries to win a prize. Others crowd around to see the excitement.

LOOKING up at the basketball hoop is Greg Wong. Greg hopes this young contestant will make a shot so he can give her one of many variety of prizes, and she did go on to win a prize.

EXCITEMENT is in Debbie Rego's expression as a contestant wins a prize at the Hula Hoops in which she works.

ia presents 13th annual show

BILL PERRERIA is helping set up the Horticulture booth. The Horticulture class is taught by Mr. Lynn Harmonson.

JULIE DEBORBA, a junior, demonstrates the art of taxidermy during the 13th annual Applied Arts Show. The taxidermy class is part of the agriculture program. Julie is seen here working on a pheasant.

MR. JOHN MYERS, jewelry instructor, Mr. Lou Racke, crafts instructor, and Mr. Herb Scott seem to have found something amusing at the art show.

DAN BEANE, a senior from the arts and crafts department, sits waiting to answer any questions from the viewers who wish to know about pottery.

RICK MERRITT dissects a rabbit in his booth. This is done in his Animal Science class.

MR. DALE COZBY, a woodshop teacher, displays and talks about some woodwork made by his students in class.

ADMIRING the paintings made by our talented art students is one of many visitors at the Art Show.

MR. WILLIAM MICHAUD, among the stuffed animals, watches spectators curiously wandering from booth to booth.

PAUL BLACKER works on his arts and crafts exhibit as his pot spins around and around. It is a messy but artful job if you are skillful enough to do it as Paul is. It's all in the hands.

playmakers present original 'way off broadway'

LARRY SCHILLER, Paul Soderstom, tries to collect pictures for Playboy magazine from Merri Bristow starring as Marilyn Monroe.

PAUL SODERSTOM assaults his little brother played by David Gollier. Paul wrote and starred in his play entitled "After the Lights Go Out."

staff and students working together

Mr. Joe Cutino and Mr. Joe Smith were both re-elected to the Governing Board of Trustees by the voting public. In April Mr. Leonard Gerry was elected president of the Board replacing Mr. Leonard Celoni and H. John Bloomfield was elected clerk. The Board expressed their pride in LUHS for having outstanding certificated and classified personnel and students. Board members also felt that success at Liberty was due in part to community support.

Dr. Michael Adams, superintendent, stated that his two main goals are to provide students with the opportunity to know basic skills and to promote more job experiences for interested individuals.

Mr. Lou Bronzan spent time this year organizing a WASC accreditation study to determine the effectiveness of the school's program and provide a blueprint for improvement.

Mr. Gerald Clayburn worked at trying to develop student pride in their school so that they would want to take care of it.

Mr. Vernon Noble and his counseling staff pondered over the idea of workshops to enable students, teachers, and parents the opportunity to easier communicate with counselors. He expressed an interest in having more orientation for freshmen and new comers and how to develop goal-planning for juniors.

Miss Barbara Bonnickson worked between the La Paloma and Liberty campus trying to insure the mental and physical well-being of students in both areas.

Mr. David Kirby looked into expanding offering in all existing vocational areas, especially in the regional occupational program.

Mr. Dewel Morgan contemplated a planned move of his opportunity program to the La Paloma campus for the 1975-76 school year. The program also faces modification in some form.

Mr. Allan Jones headed up the newly created Performing Arts Department which combines band, chorus, and drama.

Mrs. Gayl Krumland looked into the possibility of adding new courses, improving existing classes and making some already offered into semester ones.

Mr. Roy Krumland and staff developed a booklet explaining the many varied business classes offered in his department. In addition one of their classrooms was equipped with electric IBM typewriters and new tables.

Mr. William Michaud spent time helping to orient the new ag teachers Mr. Patrick Young and Mr. Lynn Harmonson. Future plans include adding a sophomore O.H. class involved in the dissecting of large animals when possible.

Mr. Oliver Bascom organized a new program to be introduced next year. The new course will involve all sophomores in a coordinated composition sequence for one semester (meets comp requirements) 200 level will be offered first semester and 100 second.

Mr. Pete Springer helped expand Ancient Civilization into a two semester class to be taught as a 300 level course. A CETA bi-lingual aide was hired to assist in the department. Social studies can now be taught to monolingual students in the English as a second language class for up to four years.

Mr. Gerald Crawford added one change to help individualize algebra. The department will allow freshmen to sign up for geometry or Algebra 2A if they are prepared. The individualized math program will continue.

Mr. Jack Ferrill hopes to see more participation in all sports to develop school spirit and mental discipline. He wants to develop a well-rounded athletic program that students will want to participate in.

Miss Karen Axelgard is trying to add more extra-curricula To try to do this a complete survey of the P.E. program is needed to see where students feel changes should be made.

Mr. Robert Glenn wants to add an A tract science class and obtain more material and equipment for use in the department.

Mr. Robert Gonzalez focused much of his attention on the annual Applied Arts Show; but also spent time working on expanding classes under R.O.P.

Mr. Frank Souza with increased help from C.E.T.A. funds spent time painting, remodeling, marking and repairing as needed on campus.

Mr. John Addington oversaw the purchase of two new buses to bring the combined Oakley-Brentwood-Liberty fleet to 21 total buses.

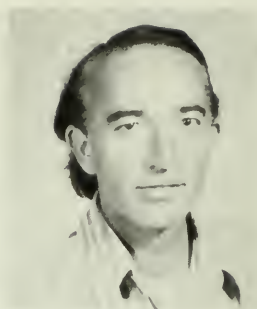

Mrs. Barbara Clark was able to hire some additional help; and as most Americans faced inflation in the cafeteria.

Teachers, staff and aides worked to provide an excellent education for all Liberty students.

yearbook editor thanks staff, students, pros

PAUSING FOR A QUICK GLANCE are Lorri White, Senior Class Editor and Valerie Bilbo, Layout Editor, as they work together to finish their pages and meet their deadline. As a Senior, this is Lorri's last year contributing her time and effort on annual staff.

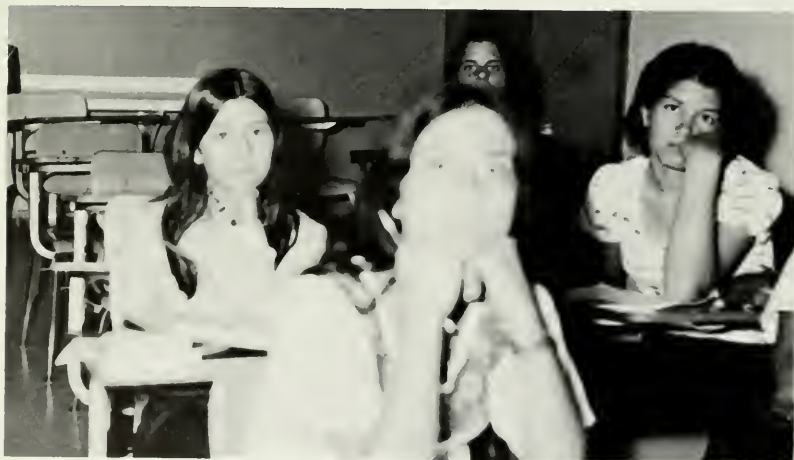

PONDERING over a great decision or maybe just daydreaming, is the yearbook advisor Mr. Batze.

The organization and successful outcome of a yearbook is accomplished from the dedication and loyalty to our school. This year I am happy to have had great support from many special people. I would like to express my sincere thanks to Mr. Dave Cowan for producing our photographs, William R. Stephenson for his help with the organization of our yearbook; the American Yearbook Co. for publishing our book and the LUHS district for its support.

Special thanks go to Mr. William Batze, our yearbook advisor, for all his time and patience for helping me make it through the year; our fantastic staff and you for making this year's yearbook sales the greatest number ever sold.

Sincerely,
Susan Chan
Editor-in-Chief

HYPNOTIZED in a state of bewilderment, are Marilyn Sanabria, Rosemary Martinez, Denise Tooley and Kathy Serna as each of them rest their heads on their hands

As one takes the LION 75 yearbook and reminisces about the year of 74-75 he is venturing the glorious past of "Yesterday Once More."

The staff members selected this theme to initiate the idea of looking back and seeing things from the past.

The LION 75 yearbook goes back in tradition as the cover is enchanted by our school seal aside from the unconventional cover of yesteryear. This design represents a spectrum of our school and its meaning. The courageous lion signifies our school's mascot the "Liberty Lion." The leaves of cardinal and gold represent our brilliant school colors. The shield holds the symbols of the lamp of learning and wisdom, the wings of athletics and the plow of agriculture—all vital to the fulfillment at Liberty and associated with the content of this book.

The endsheets and spot color also correlate with the traditional idea in metallic gold.

We hope you thoroughly enjoy this yearbook and appreciate the hours of hard work for your remembrance of "Yesterday Once More."

LEISURELY standing around campus are Steven Bishop, Denise Tooley, Lori Modrall and Diane Ambrosino.

SMILING behind a produce scale is Debbie Young Assistant Editor and Assistant Ad Manager.
